36. SWOC analysis of the department

Strength:

- Student-centric teaching method is followed by the teachers.
- Teaching-learning environment is good.
- Coordination among the administration, teaching and non-teaching staffs is very compatible.
- Overall satisfactory final examination result.
- Excellent performance of the students in various co-curricular activities (both in department and college)
- Students of the department actively participated in NSS (National Service Scheme) unit of the college.

Weakness:

- Shortage of Permanent Faculty.
- Shortage of classrooms.
- General perception of public regarding Sanskrit, both for study and job prospect is not very encouraging.

Opportunities:

- Students can get help to understand their future plans with the help of teachers.
- Being a student of Sanskrit, one can choose his/her career as an interpreter or translator.
- Organizing departmental seminars, workshops frequently with the help of college administration.

Challenges:

- The college is located in marginal region, which is not so easily commutable from the surroundings so students face problems to come to the college regularly.
- As per their economic condition students are mainly interested in job. So it is a big challenge for the department to motivate them in higher studies.

37. Future plans:

- The Department has a plan in near future to introduce more ICT tools for learning Sanskrit in a broad perspective.
- To provide the students more study materials like e-modules, ppts etc.
- To have own seminar-library of the department for the betterment of the students.
- To inaugurate departmental wall-magazine in near future.
- To conduct study-tours to enhance students' learning experience and to enhance their compatibility to work as a group.
