- Prof. Sudipta Singha, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Hiralal Bhakat College
- Smt. Debarati Chatterjee, SACT, Department of English, Hiralal Bhakat College

Participants:

- 46 Students of Semester II, IV, & VI (Hons.), Department of English
- 07 Faculty Members
- 02 Guest Speakers
- 04 Non-teaching Staff

Objective: The seminar aimed to:

- Provide a platform for scholars and students of English literature.
- Deepen understanding of the Victorian Age and its lasting impact.
- Facilitate intellectual exchange and scholarly discourse.
- Enrich knowledge and appreciation of Victorian literature.

Details: The one-day state-level seminar on "Victorian Literature: A Return from Solitude to Society" was held at Room No. 23, Hiralal Bhakat College. The event began with the lighting of the lamp. The ceremony included the felicitation of resource persons and guests.

The seminar commenced with an inaugural song performed by students from Semester VI, followed by a welcome speech from the Principal, Dr. Nurul Islam. The Head of the Department, Dr. Suddhasattwa Bannerjee, outlined the seminar's objectives, emphasizing the exploration of themes like isolation, societal connections, and the impact of Victorian literature on these themes.

The keynote speeches were delivered by two eminent scholars. The first speaker provided an engaging analysis of social connections and community in Victorian literature, while the second speaker discussed themes such as industrialization, class struggle, gender norms, and religion, using specific works and authors to illustrate the Victorian era's response to social changes.

An interactive Q&A session allowed participants to engage deeply with the topics discussed. The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks from Dr. Suddhasattwa Bannerjee.

Outcome: The seminar was successful in achieving its objectives. It offered a valuable platform for intellectual exchange, enhancing participants' understanding of Victorian literature and its societal impact. The discussions and analyses provided deeper insights into the period's literature, enriching the participants' academic experience.

Budget: Rs. 7000 (Seven Thousand Only)
