Objective:

The objectives of the Seminar include promoting a safe and respectful educational environment, raising awareness about the harmful effects of ragging, empowering students to speak up against ragging, and fostering a congenial academic atmosphere.

Details: A One-Day State Level Conference on "Respect, Reflect, Respond: Combating Ragging in Educational Institutions" was organized by the Anti-Ragging Advisory Committee in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Hiralal Bhakat College on June 24, 2024. The conference was held at Room-23, Hiralal Bhakat College, and commenced at 1:00 pm. The event was attended by over 55 participants from various departments of the Institution including students as well as faculty members.

Inaugural Session

The conference was inaugurated by Dr. Nurul Islam, Principal, Hiralal Bhakat College, who welcomed the guests, delegates, and participants. Smt. Sudipta Singha, Assistant Professor, Department of English, and Convenor, Anti-Ragging Advisory Committee, Hiralal Bhakat College, delivered the keynote address, highlighting the importance of addressing ragging and promoting a culture of respect and empathy.

Technical Sessions

The conference featured one technical session, consisting of a presentation. The session was chaired by esteemed academician and expert in the field.

Session 1:

"Ragging: A Menace to Educational Institutions" by Shri. Shyamal Ghosh, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Gazole Mahavidyalaya.

Open Discussion and Recommendations: The conference concluded with an open discussion session, where participants shared their thoughts, experiences, and suggestions on combating ragging. The conference recommendations included:

1. Implementing zero-tolerance policies against ragging
2. Conducting regular workshops and training programs for students, faculty, and staff
3. Establishing anti-ragging committees and cells in educational institutions
4. Promoting a culture of respect, empathy, and inclusivity
5. Encouraging students to report incidents of ragging without fear of reprisal

Vote of Thanks

Smt. Sudipta Singha, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Hiralal Bhakat College, delivered the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the guests, delegates, and participants for their active participation and valuable contributions.

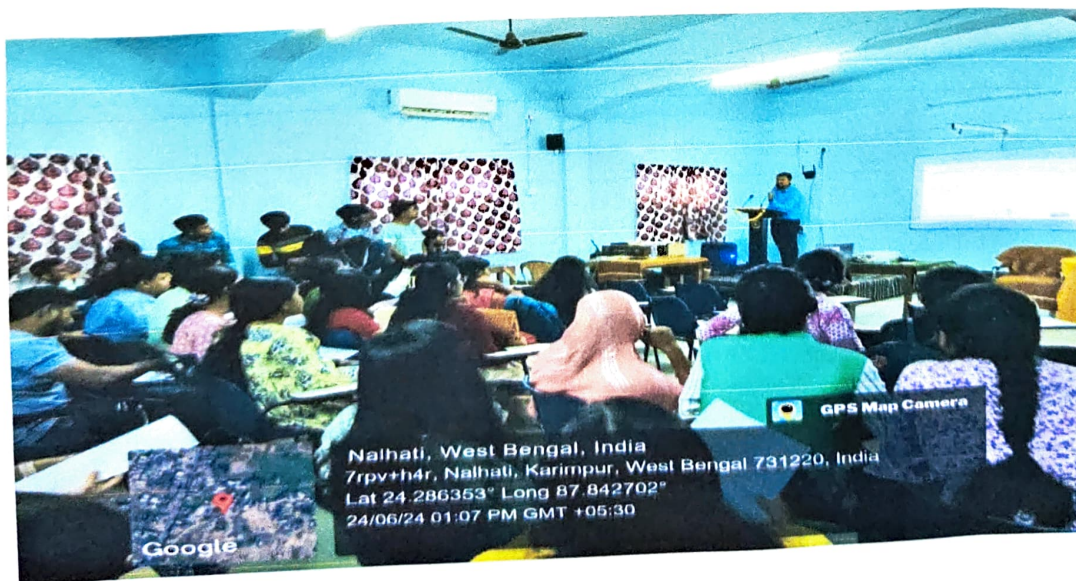

Conclusion

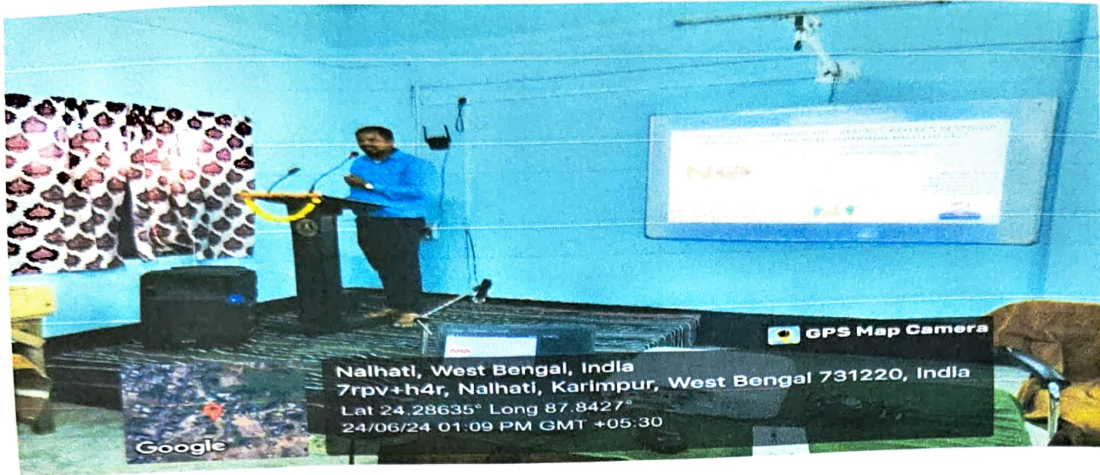

The conference was a resounding success, providing a platform for academicians, experts, and students to share their perspectives and experiences on combating ragging. The recommendations and outcomes of the conference will be shared with educational institutions and policymakers to promote a ragging-free environment in educational institutions.

Outcome: Students as well as faculty members present at seminar got enriched with the worthy words and information delivered at the guest's speech. This seminar was a huge step towards instilling a culture of respect, empathy, and mutual understanding among students and would be expected to have been fruitful action towards the eradication of ragging on the college campus.
